MEDICINAL.

ALL WISE HEADS agree that the use of a liver pill after dinner, or to accomplish special results, is an important step in civilization. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are better than other liver pills in almost every respect. They are the smallest, easiest to take, most natural in the way they act, cheapest, because guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money returned. We all have weak spots. Generally it is the liver. An active liver prevents impurities and poisons from entering the blood. "Pleasant Pellets" have a tonic effect upon the liver and the general system. They cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliary Spasms, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

THE MARKERS OF Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay you $500 if they can't give you a complete and permanent cure.

DENTISTRY.

VERY BEST
A PARADOX, BUT TRUE.
You would be willing to pay more to a quick dentist than to a slow one, provided the work was equally good, wouldn't you? What do you say, then, to our proposition to do your work, not only quicker, but for less money? Nobody could do it better. There is nothing better than the best.

The Judgment.
"The most wonderful sermon I ever heard," said a business man recently, "was delivered by a colored preacher in South Carolina, in a slave pen which was being utilized as a church shortly after the war. I happened to drop into this large gathering of colored people one night and was informed that a new preacher was about to be tried. The minister arose back of a pulpit that had been improvised from a barrel turned bottom upward, on which was a lighted candle stuck in a bottle. He began to read the Bible, but stumbled at every word, spelling some throughout, before pronouncing them. A man in the rear said: 'Go ahead with your sermon,' and the preacher ceased reading. He stood up at full length, and in the dim, flickering light of the lone candle looked more like an apparition than a man. His subject was 'The Judgment.' Here came in that wonderful imaginative quality for which the colored race is noted. In going about during the war he had become imbued with the military spirit, so he began by giving a vivid word picture of the hosts of heaven lying in their tents asleep the night before the judgment day. Then he worked up to a point where the bugle sounded to prepare for the descent upon the sinful world. He pictured the heavenly hosts hurriedly running out of their tents to form in line of battle with the Great Commander in front. Then he described the stillness that reigned when all was ready, awaiting the command to advance. By this time the whole congregation, including myself, were sitting with nerves strained, excited in the extreme, and as the preacher described the tramp, tramp, tramp, of the mighty host approaching the earth I saw several members terrified, get down under the benches. He then followed a courier coming from the distance who reported 'Death on a white horse' as having appeared far away. When the preacher described the Commander detailing a squad of soldiers to 'go capture Death,' a terrified man came to the front of the building, finally he brought the army of heaven down to earth just before daybreak, and had them resting on their arms awaiting Gabriel's trumpet. He pictured at length how quiet everything was, then putting his hand to his mouth he imitated the bugle call, which so terrified and completely unstrung his audience that the greater portion of it arose and rushed out of the building. In all my life I have never heard a sermon that had such a startling effect upon a congregation."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

To Amend the Constitution.
The joint resolution, which was ordered to a third reading on motion of Mr. Saunders in the State Senate on Thursday, and which was agreed to by the General Assembly during the last session, provides for an amendment to the Constitution of Virginia in respect to the mode of trial in capital or criminal prosecutions. The resolution is, in substance, as follows:

Whereas a certain joint resolution proposing an amendment to the tenth clause of article one of the Constitution of Virginia, in relation to the mode of trial in capital or criminal prosecutions; and

Resolved by the House of Delegates and Senate of this General Assembly, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, agreed to, which said amendment shall be submitted to the people in a manner hereafter to be prescribed, for their approval and ratification, in conformity with the provisions of article 12 of said Constitution—viz:

Article 1—Section 10: "That in all capital or criminal prosecutions a man hath the right to demand the cause and nature of his accusation, to be confronted with the accusers and witnesses, to call for evidence in his favor, and to a speedy trial by an impartial jury of his vicinage, without whose unanimous consent he cannot be found guilty, nor can he be compelled to give evidence against himself; that no man be deprived of his liberty except by the law of the land or the judgment of his peers."

Section 70. "That in all criminal or capital prosecutions a man hath a right to demand the cause and nature of his accusation, to be confronted with the accusers and witnesses, to call for evidence in his favor, and to a speedy trial by an impartial jury of his vicinage, without whose unanimous consent he cannot be found guilty; but the General Assembly may by law provide for the trial otherwise than by jury of a man accused of a criminal offense not punishable by death or confinement in the penitentiary, nor can he be compelled to give evidence against himself; that no man be deprived of his liberty except by the law of the land or the judgment of his peers."
